DOCTOR IS DRIVEN INSANE.

Experience in a Madhouse Dethrones His Reason. A celebrated Scotch physician tells a story of a madhouse doctor whose presence of mind alone saved his life; "A great friend of mine was for a considerable time the medical superintendent of a lunatic asylum near Glasgow. One night in making his customary rounds he had occasion to visit the patients in the kitchen, who were preparing the dinner. There were seven of them, all big, sturdy fellows who were believed to be harmless. The keeper only looked in upon them now and again, feeling that his constant presence was unnecessary. "The doctor unlocked the iron-barred door of the kitchen and went in among the lunatics. There were five large boilers containing scalding water ready for making the day's dinner for the

"One of the lunatics pointed at the boilers full of hot water and laying his hand upon the doctor's shoulder, said, 'Dector, you'll make a fine pot of broth,' and the words had no sooner been uttered than the other six madmen shouted in a voice of delight, 'Just the thing!' and, seizing the doctor, were in the very act of putting him into one of the large bollers of scalding water when the doctor had the presence of mind to say, but not a second too soon:

" 'Capital broth, but it would taste better if I took my clothes off.'

"The madmen with a yell of delight said 'Yes,' and the doctor asked them to wait a moment while he went and took his clothes off, but as soon as he got out of the kitchen he turned the key in the door and ordered the keeper to see to the lunatics being put under restraint.

"The doctor's presence of mind saved him, it is true, from a terrible death, but he died shortly after raving mad. The experience had destroyed his

Next Year's Issues. McKinley's renomination for the Presidency is a foregone conclusion. The Republican party appears to be devoted to him and his ways to such an extent that no other candidate can get himself seriously discussed. Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, saw this some months ago and resigned his place in Congress and betook himself to New York City for the practice of his profession. He saw clearly that there is no chance just now for the gratification of his ambition and he concluded that he had better make all the money possible until the politi-These appeared to poor Janet not so | cal situation becomes more favorable to

With McKinley as the ne will, of course, be the maker of the feet, appeared on the sheet, fighting platform and the manager of the campaign. This meats that a certain number of Democrats are to be humbugged again on the money question into voting the Republican ticket. The "sound currency" cry is to be taken up once more. The mismanagement of the war with Spain, the Alger scandal, the incompetence of Otis, the establishment of military dictatorship in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, the fostering of thieving trusts under the New Jersey man whom they put into the Attornev General's office, are things to be ignored, and the "scare" of 1896 is to be worked over.

Under these circumstances what ought the Democrats to do? There should be no doubt about the answer. Those things that the Republicans want to avoid should be brought to the front. If the failure to govern the new island acquisitions properly, the scandalous ncompetence displayed in the War Department, the favoritism shown to monopolistic corporations and the general lack of ability in the conduct of affairs be, the verdict at the polls next year is not at all doubtful.-New York News.

Brigham H. Roberts, Representative elect from the State of Utah, is not to sit as a member of the Fifty-sixth Congress. Final judgment on his case was indicated when the House by a vote of 302 to 30 declined to accord him permission to take the oath of office. A special committee composed of nine members was appointed to investigate the charges that caused the action. Roberts intimated that if all other resources fail he may appeal to the Supreme Court of the Unit ed States for adjudication of the legal questions involved in the proceedings to oust him. Roberts made a gallant de fense in his own behalf. He refgused to sue for the mercy of the House, but de manded as his right that he be permitted to occupy his seat so that the State of Utah might be represented in Congress. Cut out this ad, and send it to us with 50c, and we will forward this elegant, high-grade genuine Stradivarius model violin C. O. D., subject to your approval. You have the privilege of thorough examination at the express office; if perfectly satisfied pay the agent the balance, together with return charges and you get the bargain of a lifetime, or if you remit cash in full with order you save return charges and we guarantee to refund money if you say so. This violin is an exact copy of the genuine Stradivarius model violin, is of an eigent reddish brown color, has solid ebony trimmings; the tone is excellent, being much finer than produced by many higher-priced instruments. We furnish this violin strung up and with an extra set of fine steel strings, a good high-grade bow, a cake of rosin, a fine instructor—all complete in a heavy marbleized pasteboard box. Our prime reason for selling this out-
